- Trade related, user-friendly documents including Risk Assessments, Method Statements, Site Toolbox Talks and Fire Assessment procedures etc
- Sample forms and letters – hundreds of forms for members to adapt
- Business support telephone helpline, offering unlimited access to expert tailored advice
- Live Chat – to allow you to get instant online responses to questions

Need more support?

In the future, should you feel you need more support but don't want to employ an HR or H&S Manager, there is an option to upgrade to a bespoke risk management support.

Benefits include:

- Support from a dedicated registered advisor in health and safety and a qualified HR advisor, both with specific expertise in your industry
- Comprehensive annual audits supported with detailed compliance reports setting out all actions required
- Bespoke documentation incorporating policy, procedures, company specific arrangements and risk management procedures
- A framework structured to your own business environment
- Continued ongoing support, with legislation updates incorporating any further requirements
